Governor by Immense Majority.

Ticket to a Signal

THE RESULT IN OTHER STATES

The results of the election in Kentucky last Tuesday and the sweeping victory of the Republican party are matters of history, about which little more than would be new can now be said. Hon. Augustus E. Willson, Republican nominee for Governor, carried his entire ticket through, receiving a majority of about 15,000. Here in Louisville, his home city, he received a tremendous vote, leading his ticket by thousands and making his election a certainty. Throughout the State, but especially in the Democratic strongholds, he made wonderful gains. Since the result has become known Gov. Willson has been submerged with letters and telegrams of congratulation from all sections of the country, and the Democrats are agreed that if they had to have a Republican Chief Executive he would be their choice. Especially gratifying to his friends is the fact that he is the first man from Louisville to be elected Governor of the State. That he will give the people a safe and honest administration is the belief of Democrats as well as Republicans.

More astonishing than the outcome of the Governor's race was the result of the contest for the General Assembly, which was claimed by both parties by a very close vote on joint ballot. The Democrats claim a safe majority in the Senate, but in the House it is otherwise, and therefore the chances for Gov. Beckham's election to the United States Senate are jeopardized. In this instance it is already hinted that a sufficient number of Democrats will refuse to vote for Gov. Beckham on joint ballot, thereby causing a deadlock and preventing his election at this session. His opponent will doubtless be the first man from Louisville to be elected Governor of the State. That he will give the people a safe and honest administration is the belief of Democrats as well as Republicans.

In Louisville and Jefferson county the Republicans swept the platter clean, electing Hon. James F. Grinstead and almost his entire ticket by a rule or run policy was sufficient to cause the defeat of the Democratic party. When the returns were in Tuesday night Mr. Tyler sent congratulations to his victorious opponent, who received the news of his election with a happiness and dignity that becometh a man. Mayor Grinstead pledges himself to stand squarely on the platform on which he made his race and carry out every pledge made during the campaign. Now that he is elected Mayor the people of Louisville should bow to the will of the majority and give him their support as long as he gives them a good administration.

In New York the Democrats were again victorious, electing the ticket put forth by Tammany Hall and routing the Republicans and Hearst's Independence League, which had combined and named a mugwump ticket. This election puts an end to Hearst in New York State, and the only thing left for him to do is to fuse with Waterson in Kentucky.

Rhode Island stands in the Democratic column, having re-elected Gov. James Higgins by an increased majority, and the last reports were that the Legislature was very close. Maryland also returned to the Democratic column, choosing Democratic State officers and a Legislature that will send a Democrat to the Senate. Massachusetts gave Gov. Guild, the Republican candidate, a plurality of over 100,000 votes, electing the entire ticket. The Democrats were badly split and had no show whatever from the day they held two State conventions. In New Jersey the contest was bitter, but the Republicans carried the State by 7,000. In Jersey City Mark Fagan, who was seeking his fourth term as Mayor, was defeated by 9,000.

The Mayoralty contest in Cleveland, which for months has attracted the attention of the entire country, resulted in a glorious victory for Tom L. Johnson, who was elected Mayor for the fourth term. Unusual importance attached to this contest from the fact that Congressman Theodore Burton, Chairman of the House Rivers and Harbor Committee, and supposed to be the candidate of President Roosevelt and Secretary Taft, resigned his seat to make the race. Mayor Johnson's plurality was over 9,000, and referring to his election he said: "Through all the confusion and slander the people kept their minds fixed upon the real issue, so that today Cleveland is a free city. It was the people's fight; it is the people's victory. The right may lose a battle, but it never lost a war. Our seven years' war is won. Cleveland will go on with its great work. It will recognize all the lawful and equitable rights of the defeated monopoly, but it will reserve and preserve all the rights of the people." Mayor Johnson is a native of Louisville.

In San Francisco there were three candidates for Chief Executive, the incumbent, Mayor Taylor, who succeeded Schmitt, being the winner by a plurality of between 8,000 and 9,000.

SACRED COLLEGE.

Reported That Cardinals Will Be Created Next Month.

The death of Cardinal Steinhuber has deprived the Jesuit order of its last representative in the Sacred College of Cardinals and will make it necessary for the Pope to nominate another member of the order. There is much speculation as to what member of the powerful order will be chosen to succeed the late Cardinal. His nomination to the Sacred College can not be delayed very long, following the traditions of the church. It is more than probable that the nomination will take place at the next Consistory, which is to be held early in December. It is said prelates in position to know declare the choice of the Pope will fall on Father Brandt, who for many years was the leading editor of the Civita Cattolica, the prominent semi-monthly organ of the order. It was Father Brandt who for nearly twenty years sustained the rights of the Holy See in the matter of the temporal power and defended the dogmas and rights of the church in a numberless series of articles. His services to the Holy See are considered of such value in Vatican circles that nobody would be surprised if he were promoted to the highest honor given by the church. At the December Consistory it is definitely settled that the Archbishop of Westminster, Mr. Francis Bourne, will be promoted to a seat in the Sacred College, and so will three Austrian and German Bishops.

FATHER O'GRADY.

Patriot Priest Here Working For Irish National School.

The Rev. Father Patrick J. O'Grady, C. C., the "Patriot Priest of Ballaghaderreen," who attracted the attention of Irishmen throughout the world when he erected a monument to the memory of Bartholomew Teeling, a hero of '49, in the face of much opposition, is in America on a mission to the countrymen and others identified with educational work in a new national school which he and several of his fellow-priests wish to found at Ballaghaderreen, in the historic Archdiocese. The new institution is in no way intended as an ecclesiastical project, its aim being to prepare young Ireland for any vocation in life. Outside of the Jesuit colleges there are few such secular schools in Ireland. He has gathered about him a group of young priests who have pledged their life effort to the erection and care of a national university. Father O'Grady brings introductory letters from the leading figures in Ireland's struggle for independence, in the educational feature of which he has been greatly in the foreground. He wishes to avoid the petty political entanglements in which his countrymen frequently become embroiled, and to link them together in the broader movement for the general education of the younger generations. Father O'Grady arrived last Saturday and is now in New York.

GERMANS

Will Banquet Taft During His Stay in Berlin.

With the visit of Secretary Taft only a few weeks off the German authorities at Berlin, municipal as well as State, are busy preparing to give the American statesman a hearty welcome. Representatives of the Kaiser, as well as of the city of Berlin, will receive the Secretary at the depot, and from the moment he sets foot on German territory he will be carried from one banquet to another. The Kaiser will receive him in audience the day after his arrival and will invite him to be present at a magnificent review of the whole garrison of the city, to be held on the Tempelhofer Field. Part of the time Secretary Taft will be taken in charge by the German Minister of War, General von Einem, who will show him various technical military innovations. It is suggested that the lifting power of Major Parsifal's and Count Zeppelin's dirigible airships be tested by inviting Secretary Taft to make an ascension in each, but whether he will consent to act as ballast is a matter of doubt.

DELMONT CLUB ELECTION.

The annual election of the Delmont Club for the selection of a Board of Directors was held Wednesday night at the club house on Story avenue, and when the votes were counted the following were declared the choice and will serve until January 1909. Messrs. Joseph Blas, Louis W. Borntraeger, Thomas T. Dunlop, Fred E. Hoerter, Leo P. Kaufman, Conrad J. Kissler, Henry H. Lang, Charles Mann, William Mehler, Edward H. Meyer, Albert S. Rau, Herman Roehr, Charles W. Schott, Matt Schupp, Henry Weber. When the annual reports are made at the close of the year the Delmont will be found in better condition than ever before.

PREPARATIONS

For Big Euche Being Made
by Ladies' Auxiliary,
A. O. H.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Ancient Order of Hibernians held their regular meeting Wednesday evening at Robinson's Hall, with Miss Elizabeth King presiding in the absence of the President, Miss Mary Sheridan. Reports were received from the Entertainment Committee, who are in charge of the euche to be given Wednesday, November 20, and it was announced forty hand-made prizes had been secured. The committee respectfully invites every Hibernian in the city and their friends to attend the euche and promise them a delightful evening's entertainment.

Three new members were obligated and two more are promised for next meeting. A mass for deceased members will soon be offered at the Dominican church, the exact date to be announced later. Talks on the good of the order were made by Mrs. D. J. Dougherty, Mrs. John Rummage, Misses Elizabeth King, Fannie Kennedy and Bridget Hanrahan.

THEIR FIRST.

St. Columba's Parish Will Celebrate Anniversary
November 17.

St. Columba's church, at Thirty-third and Market streets, will be a year old on Sunday, November 17, and the congregation and pastor, Rev. John D. Kalaher, are preparing for a fitting celebration of its first anniversary. The ceremonies will consist of a solemn high mass at 10:30 o'clock and of solemn vespers and benediction in the evening at 7:30, together with a sermon by one of the most eloquent priests of the city.

A great deal has been accomplished by St. Columba's during the first year of its existence, as the congregation is now well organized and has a largely attended and prosperous school. An addition has recently been built to the church, giving it a much larger seating capacity as well as an ample sanctuary.

The new pastoral residence is also nearing completion, and to add to the building fund the people of St. Columba's have arranged for a series of their enjoyable euches, which have proved so successful in the past on account of the number and quality of the prizes offered. The euche will take place at Pifer's Hall, Twenty-fifth and Market, on Tuesday and Wednesday afternoon and evening, November 19 and 20, when numerous elegant prizes will be distributed and a splendid supper served.

GAVE HER LIFE.

Aged Nun Stricken While Seeking Work For Woman.

A crowd stood with bared heads on Avenue A in New York last Saturday afternoon while a priest administered the last rites of the church to a dying Sister of Charity in a store. The crowd was made up of members of the parish of the Immaculate Conception, and their spiritual adviser, Father Turner, was ministering to the stricken Sister, Sister Mary St. John, of the Little Sisters of the Assumption, better known as the visiting Sisters of the Poor, was the sufferer. She was sixty years old and feeble. Born in Ireland, she had been a nun thirty-five years. She came to this country four years ago. Sister Mary was ill and went out upon her ministrations to the poor despite the protests of the Mother Superior, Sister Mary du Christ. Three months ago she had been stricken, and it was pointed out to her that she might pay the penalty with her life if she ventured out, but she went any way. She had been trying for a week to find a place for a deserving woman, and had just been informed that a place would be open Monday. She hastened to the home of the woman, and on the way back was seized with giddiness while on Avenue A, near Fifteenth street. She was found clinging to the iron rails of a fence and carried to a grocery store. Later she was removed to the Convent of the Assumption, where she died within an hour. Sister Mary St. John was formerly Miss Elizabeth Henry.

REMOVING GIANTS' CAUSEWAY

Prefacing its remarks with the statement that "the American vandal knows no respect for things or men, ancient buildings, beauty spots or places with historic associations," a Dublin newspaper makes bitter complaint regarding an alleged interference by Americans with the basaltic columns which form the magnificent natural spectacle on the Antrim coast, known as the Giants' Causeway.

The story is that certain American vandals have conceived the intention of shipping these columns to America, where an effort will be made to reconstitute the causeway in some place, the location of which is still a matter of conjecture. It is stated that the first consignment of two hundred tons, packed in cases, is to be sent from Belfast shortly to Liverpool, thence to be taken to Philadelphia.

The Giants' Causeway, which is one of the great natural sights of the Northern seacoast of Ireland, was until quite recently free to all, but about six years ago powers were obtained by private persons to make a charge for admission.

CHAMPION

American Athletes Expected to Repeat Their Olympiad Victories.

Sheridan, Mc-Grath, Flanagan, Daly and Others Depended Upon.

Clubs Will Send Teams to Compete in London Next Year.

UNCLE SAM'S RECORD HOLDERS

Barring unforeseen accidents, America will furnish the victorious athletic team to the next Olympic games, which will be held in London next August. With the acquisition of several world's record-holders to its list and a noticeable improvement in all of those who competed at Athens last year, the Yankee team is almost certain to roll up an unprecedented number of points. The athletics who will leave these shores for this meet will be the greatest in quality and quantity that have ever competed in an athletic meet in the history of sport. No other country on the face of the earth compares with them. In every branch of sport—from the dashes to the twenty-five-mile Marathon race, and from swimming to weight throwing—the sturdy men of this country collectively outclass those of any other nation.

And of all the athletic clubs from all parts of the world, no club will be more liberally represented than the Irish-American, of New York City. So many champions of various sorts compete in the colors of this club that the management, in order to send its best men, will be compelled to send more than half its athletic members. To select the most probable winners from this club is a task of such proportions that even the experts, trainers and coaches employed by the club will not attempt to do it, and rather than take a chance of losing a point, fifty winners of the winged feet will be sent abroad to strive for national, club and individual honors. This aggregation will be the largest number of athletes ever sent to a championship meet by one club in the history of athletics. Among those who will don the colors of the Irish-Americans are men who are regarded as the world's champions and others who stand out as the equals of many others.

Although the New York Athletic Club will not send as many entries as their rival, the calibre of the men who represent it will be nearly as high. Among its entries, as with those of the Irish-Americans, it has several world's champions. Other New York clubs, including the Pastime, the Mohawk, the Xavier and the Mott Haven, will increase the number from that city to more than a hundred. And while this number will represent Gotham, nearly as many more from other parts of the country will wear the starred and striped shield. No section of the country will be without a representative. The North, the South, the East and the West, all bound together by patriotic inspiration, will strive mightily together to defeat the other nations of the world.

Even at the early date many events are conceded to the Americans. And with such invincible men as Martin Sheridan, Ralph Rose, Matt McGrath, John Daly, Melvin Sheppard, George Bonhag, Paul Pilgrim, Ray Ewry, Hahn, Kelly, Eaton, Hillman, Smithson, Huff, Ellers, Sheehan, Bellars, O'Connell, Parsons, Daniels, Coe, Prineas and Flanagan representing us there is every reason to believe that the foreign nations should fear the results. Sheridan, besides being the greatest discus thrower, is probably the greatest all-around athlete in the world, and for this emblem he is looked upon as a sure winner. He can throw all the weights, jump, vault and run better than any other man in this country, and no one here knows of any other man in any other land who is his equal. Matt McGrath, the world's record holder for throwing the hammer, is conceded the greatest in this event, and should McGrath fall through accident to do his best, John Flanagan, of the Irish-American Club, will be on hand to defeat the best of the other nations.

With Tom Longboat, the Indian distance runner, out, John Daly, the national champion distance runner, is looked upon as a certain winner of the five-mile race. As in the case of McGrath, the man he must fear is his clubmate, George Bonhag. While the latter is not considered as good as Daly, he has demonstrated his prowess as a walker, and he will attempt to win the walking events. At present there is no half-mile in this country the equal of Melvin Sheppard, and as America is considered to have the best middle-distance runners in the world, this Irish-American is sanguine of defeating the world's best. Paul Pilgrim, of the New York Athletic Club, beat the best men in the world at Athens last year in the 400-metre and 800-metre races, and is as good now as he was then. If he continues to maintain his form he is expected to duplicate his victories of last year, and he will have aid from many of his countrymen.

Ray Ewry, of the New York Athletic Club, at the standing jumps is considered invincible and a sure winner in the events in which he will start. Over the hurdles, Forrest Smithson, of California, and Harry Hillman, of the New Yorks, and J. J. Ellers, of the Irish-Americans, are considered the peers of any other country's representatives.

COUNCIL DOINGS.

Sarto's Members Are Striving Hard For First Place.

Sarto Council, Y. M. I., is reported as moving along in a most satisfactory manner and doing things all the time, with the hope that it will eventually move into first place in the Kentucky jurisdiction. Among the recent very pleasant events under its auspices was one pay euche, a euche for the men and another for the ladies of the auxiliary and the members, both of which were complimentary, and these were followed by a candy pull-ing by the ladies that proved a delightful affair. Another event that enthused the Y. M. I. was the victory of their ball team, who with Becker in the box won the City League championship from the semi-professional Owensboro team.

Several nice programmes have been given at the meetings of Sarto Council, and last week an exemplification of the "Pilgrim's Progress" degree was given to the great delight of the members attending. An entirely new side degree that will be the greatest ever is almost ready for exemplification and is expected to prove even more effective than "Pilgrim's Progress." The three degrees of the institute will be conferred on a large class next month. The council has donated the use of their hall for one year to the Queen's Daughters, thus saving a neat sum for their charitable work. A donation has been made to the Catholic Extension Society.

Mr. J. M. Dawson, wife of Joe Dawson, of Trinity, was buried here last Sunday. She died in Texas, where she had gone for her health. A large number of members attended her funeral. Past Grand Secretary Edwin Dawson, of New Haven, and R. Pierre Dawson, of Louisville, also attended.

GIVEN FINE START.

Knights of Columbus Instituted Lebanon Council
Sunday.

Last Sunday was a day that will be long remembered by the Catholics of Lebanon and Marion county and the Knights of Columbus in Kentucky. Upon the arrival of the Louisville train the two hundred Knights from the Falls Cities were escorted to St. Augustine's church, where with the candidates they filled the center aisle that had been reserved for them. Rev. Father Hogarty was the celebrant of the solemn high mass and preached an eloquent welcome sermon. The mass was Gregorian throughout and the choir was assisted by a number of the visitors.

The initiatory ceremonies began at 2 o'clock and continued throughout the afternoon. The exemplification and conferring of degrees was conducted by teams from Louisville Council under the direction of Judge Matt O'Doherty, and when completed Lebanon Council was started on its voyage with about sixty members. The banquet that followed was an elaborate affair and lasted till nearly midnight. Toasts were responded to by Father Hogarty, Judge O'Doherty and others, and all returned to this city clad with the hospitality bestowed upon them.

HANDSOME CRUCIFIX

Will Be Blessed Tomorrow
Night at Holy Cross Church.

Tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock Holy Cross church at Thirty-second and Broadway, of which Rev. John Sheridan is the faithful pastor, will be the scene of one of the most beautiful and impressive ceremonies in the Catholic church. This will be the blessing of a large and handsome crucifix that has just been added to the church. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Father Charles Cassidy, of the Passionist order, and will be followed by solemn vespers and benediction. Holy Cross is one of the prettiest of the small churches in the city, and Father Sheridan will be most pleased to see it thronged on this occasion.

Father Charles, who is one of the most eloquent pulpit orators among the Passionists, will preach the sermon at the high mass at 10 o'clock. Since Father Sheridan assumed charge of the parish there have been numerous additions to his congregation, and with the additions to the population in that section it need not be surprising if the church will soon have to be enlarged.

GIRLS DOLAN'S PRIDE.

Thomas A. Dolan, the Philadelphia millionaire traction magnate whose recent connection with the Metropolitan Securities Company and William C. Whitney, Thomas F. Ryan, P. A. B. Widener and the late William L. Elkins, has attracted public attention throughout the country, was born of poor but industrious Irish parents in Montgomery county, in 1834. He began his business career as office boy in a commission house and in time was in a position to embark on his own account in the manufacture of the articles in which his firm dealt. His operations gradually extended until they took in not only manufacturing, but organization of traction companies. As a manufacturer he has been noted for kindness to operatives. One day he was walking through a district in which his mills are situated with a friend, and the latter noticed that he bowed often to young women who appeared to be well dressed and sometimes even stylishly attired. "You seem to have a great many friends up here, Dolan," remarked his companion. "Who are all these ladies?"

"These ladies," was the reply, with just a perceptible trace of pride in his voice, "are the operatives in my mill."

FEDERATION.

Entertainment For Regular Meeting Thursday Night.

The regular monthly meeting of the Federation of Catholic Societies of Jefferson county will be held at the Catholic Woman's Club next Thursday night at 8 o'clock. The entertainment for this meeting will be in charge of the delegates from the various branches of the Catholic Knights and Ladies of America and the Hibernian divisions of the city, and will be followed by the long promised address by Edward Neuhaus, of the Glaubensbote, and short talks by various other members. President Newton Rogers and the officers are very desirous that all of the delegates will be present and bring their friends with them as far as they may wish, in order to make full arrangements for general work during the winter season. The officers, as usual, have done and will do all in their power to make the meeting one of interest and pleasure as well as instructive for all who attend.

WILL FIGHT HARD

To Rescue Rome From the Control of Enemies of Religion.

The Catholic party will make a hard fight at the municipal elections which will take place in Rome next month. In the last body of Aldermen, including the Mayor, there was a majority of Catholic interests while they were in office. The last election proved disastrous to the Catholic party, as the Socialists, Labor Unionists and all the extreme parties combined to defeat the Catholic candidates. They succeeded and elected a small majority in the Municipal Council. Their success was marred when the Mayor and the Municipal Council resigned, thus necessitating the appointment of a royal commissioner and the calling of a new election for next month. It is of paramount importance to the Vatican authorities to have a Catholic majority in the Municipal Council, because many anti-clerical measures, such as the suppression of religious teaching in the public schools and questions relating to the marriage bond, may be arranged by the Aldermen in a way which the Vatican authorities oppose. Because of this all the Catholic associations of Rome have been rallied together and their members will try their best to defeat the extremists at the coming elections.

OWENSBORO.

Death of Miss Mamie Arnold Shocks Relatives and Friends.

A very sad death in Owensboro is that of Miss Mamie Arnold, the only sister of Fred Arnold and a young lady of most charming character, who was stricken with a congestive chill Tuesday night and on Wednesday morning passed peacefully to her heavenly home. Miss Arnold had been seen and in apparent good health on Tuesday, and her sudden and unexpected death came as a painful shock to her many relatives and friends. She was a leading and greatly beloved member of the Young Ladies' Auxiliary of Sarto Council, Y. M. I., which met Wednesday night and then proceeded to the Arnold home in a body to pray for the repose of the victim of the deceased member. Sarto Council postponed the programme that had been arranged for Thursday night, and after the adoption of resolutions of sympathy adjourned to pay the last tribute of respect and pray for her eternal rest. The funeral took place Friday morning from St. Joseph's church with a solemn high mass of requiem. The Ladies' Auxiliary attended in a body and the pall-bearers were chosen from among the members of Sarto Council. Not for a long time has such a large funeral been seen in Owensboro. Miss Arnold's death having cast a pall of gloom over the entire city.

NINE LADIES JOIN.

Police Commissioner Jack Murphy, Barrister Col. John Kenney and the members of Branch 54, Catholic Knights of America, of Jefferson county, are making elaborate preparations for the next meeting of that body, when nine young ladies will be received into the branch and awarded certificates. It is intended to make this one of the events of the year in Jeffersonville, and in addition to inviting the Catholic population of that city the Central Committee and the two uniformed companies of Louisville will be asked to attend.

TAKES BETTER PLACE.

Will S. Hanrahan, for some time past a clerk in the assistant general freight agent's office of the Southern railway and one of its most popular employees, has severed his connection with that company to accept a more responsible and lucrative position with the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company.

VIVID LIGHT

Upon Unhappy Conditions That Obtain in Ireland
Today.

People Nurse Pure Morals Depite Abject Misery and Poverty.

Lady Somerset Finds That the Wrongs There Are Real.

PREDICTS MANY WONDERFUL THINGS

Lady Somerset, who has just completed a visit to the Emerald Isle, and whose word is undisputed, declares there is no sadder and yet more interesting reading than the thick volumes issued by the Royal Commission on the congestion in Ireland, nor will any future history of Ireland contain material which will bring more vivid light on the conditions which obtain in that unhappy island today. In her letter she says:

"I have for many years been struck with the extraordinary want of knowledge which exists in England as to affairs in Ireland. The ideas of the ordinary Englishman are usually limited to the fact that in Ireland riots are likely to occur; that the Irish are an ungrateful people, who spurn the benefits which England has laid at their feet, and who are in constant and unnecessary revolt. Any careful perusal of the evidence of the commission will dispel these preconceived theories."

"I have just returned from the wild coasts of Donegal, and have had occasion to visit some of the most famous of the congested districts, such as Ballyhoose, etc. No one can live in Ireland and not realize that her wrongs are very real, and by living in Ireland I do not mean to stay as a guest in one of the great country houses of Ireland, where one is surrounded by English and where the ruling class is always ready to condemn the native born Irishman; but I mean to live among the peasants, understand how they live, the conditions in which they exist, the rent they pay and the actual money on which they have to starve. Then you are no longer astonished that such societies as the Sinn Fein should exist, or that the cry of 'Ireland for Ireland' is gaining ground. I often hear people talk of developing 'the land,' and when they use that expression I smile and remember what Ireland is, what her people are—poor, it is true, and yet in a sense infinitely rich, for among the peasants along that wild coast I find one invariable rule, namely, that the standard of life which they maintain are true standards, and not sham; that to them the most important thing in the world is to live right, to be kind to children, to be neighborly, to love God. The fact that they are poor does not mean that they are unhappy. True, they live on the narrow line which separates want from sufficiency; they understand what it means to ask, day by day, for their bread, and to receive it, for in those little cabins with their doors set wide toward the Atlantic ocean there is an atmosphere which is not wholly of this world. The unseen is strangely present. The world is filled for them with saints and angels and unseen beings, who are as real as the children who crowd round the hearth, and the courtesy that they show to the stranger, put on in order to impress a stranger. It is the outcome of the perfect courtesy of a people given to a hard task, but many with the kindness of God. I call that land of bogs and moors, thin patches of corn a poor one, but believe that when the real treasure of the world comes to be weighed Ireland will be found to be rich in those things which go to make the real welfare of the world."

CATHEDRAL DEDICATION

On Thanksgiving day the new Cathedral of the Sacred Heart at Richmond will be dedicated by the most distinguished dignitaries and prelates of the church in America, with the exception of the apostolic legate, representing the Holy Father. Right Rev. Augustin Van de Borch of Richmond, will see the results of thirty-six years' labor in Virginia in the consecration of one of the greatest Cathedrals in the world. Five years ago Bishop Van de Borch, through the generosity of Mrs. Thomas F. Ryan, found himself in a position to order the construction of the Cathedral. Today the stone pile occupies a picturesque well as a commanding location, embracing an entire block in the city of the fashionable part of the city and facing upon Monroe Park, its acres of grass and trees.

HAD MUCH FUN

Branch 25, C. K. of America, Monday night after a session on the death of the late John O'Connell, who died of a heart attack. Owing to lack of time between Messrs. Joseph H. McGee and Joseph H. McGee, the latter conducted a sneezing and laughing test that treated unbounded merriment, the prizes for which were awarded to John O'Connell and Desse. The debate will take place Monday evening, November 11, as it promises to be a most interesting one. All Catholic Knights

HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing
the Past Week—General
News Notes.

The Hibernian Knights of St. John, N. B., are thinking of visiting Boston in the near future.

The Ladies' Auxiliary meets next Wednesday night, and every member who can should attend.

Sixty ladies compose the charter-membership of an auxiliary just instituted at Forestville, Conn.

Texas Hibernians have been electing delegates to their State convention, which will be held at Waco.

Division 1 of Hartford, Conn., had the Auditorium and gave entertainments Wednesday and Thursday nights.

Division 15 of Pittsburgh had an immense gathering at the dedication of its new hall and club rooms last Sunday.

The officers of Division 1 hope for a big attendance at the meeting next Friday night. We look to see quite a jollification.

The Hibernians of St. John are making preparations for the Provincial convention which will be held in that city in 1908.

At a meeting of the New Hampshire State Board reports showed an increase of 523 new members and the addition of two divisions.

National President Cummings was in Lowell, Mass., this week, and on Thursday night addressed a monster union meeting of the order there.

Thursday night at the meeting of Division 3 the Indianapolis trip will be discussed and plans submitted that are calculated to make the trip a popular one.

Reports submitted last Sunday
when the County Board met show the Syracuse divisions making steady gains. All have increased their membership this year.

The five divisions and the auxiliaries of Lowell, Mass., held a grand reunion Thursday night, commemorating the establishment of the order there forty years ago.

Each of the four divisions of Manchester, N. H., have appointed ten members to form a general committee to act upon matters pertaining to the order and local conditions.

Division 60 of Boston, composed largely of printers, under the guidance of President Punch and his able officers, will surely make one of the best reports ever rendered by a first year division at the end of the term.

A proposal of great importance to the order is under consideration by the provincial President of the Dominion of Canada. It is the organization of the five provinces,
Ontario, Quebec, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island, under one board, with a Canadian charter. By this means it is hoped to enlarge the membership, increase the amount of insurance policies that may be issued and in general place the order on a stronger footing, thereby enabling it to compete with other great fraternal organizations in that country.

RECENT DEATHS.

The funeral of Miss Gertrude Sherman, the beloved daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sherman, took place Sunday afternoon from St.
Francis of Rome church, Rev. Father White conducting the solemn services. Miss Sherman was one of the most exemplary and popular young girls in Clifton, and a wide circle of friends and admirers feel that that section has suffered a distinct loss.

The funeral obsequies of Mrs.
Catherine Moellman, beloved wife of August Moellman, Hancock and Madison street, held Thursday morning at St. Boniface church, were of the most solemn and impressive character. A congregation that almost filled the church was present to show their love and esteem for the deceased, who was one of the best known women in the parish. For the bereaved husband and relatives there is the most profound sympathy.

William P. Sheridan, for years engaged in the wall paper business on West Market street, died on Friday of pneumonia, at the home of his mother, Mrs. Mary Sheridan, 2421 West Madison street. Though ill for some time it was not until just before the end that fear was entertained for his recovery. Of a quiet and unassuming nature, he had a wide circle of friends who were deeply grieved by his death. The funeral took place from St. Charles church, Rev. Father Raffo conducting the solemn services.

TOMORROW'S COLLECTION.

Tomorrow in all the Catholic churches throughout this diocese collections will be taken up in behalf of infirm priests, and doubtless there will be a generous response to the appeal made for them by Bishop McCloskey. These good priests, who were ever ready when called upon to relieve sickness and distress, have sacrificed their lives and the little means they had for humanity, without ever giving thought to their old age or day of need, and therefore Catholics should feel called upon to be as liberal as possible.

TOOK TEN DAYS.

Patrolmen Frank Canfield, Edward Pulford, J. J. Finnegan, John Sage and Jerry O'Connell have been enjoying their annual vacation of ten days, and will report for duty Monday.

BACK ON DUTY.

Capt. Mike Cassin and Tim Brown, who sustained painful burns while rescuing the Wiseman family from the fire that damaged their home on Preston street last week, are again on duty. When the firemen entered the house the kitchen lamp exploded and threw burning oil over them.
They rushed into the yard and by rolling over and over in the tall

FOULLY MURDERED.

Wednesday morning the sad intelligence reached Louisville from Knoxville of the foul murder of Carl H.
Bundschu, a former well known and respected resident of this city, who left here while a young man and has since been prominent in Knoxville, Tenn. Bundschu was manager of the Elks' Club, and a negro porter is suspected of the dastardly crime.
The tragedy was discovered by a brother of the murdered man. Finding the Elks' Club closed he started in search of his brother and not finding him on the outside, he entered the building by a rear door and after a search of an hour he found the body covered with blood and doubled up in a closet. Life had been extinct for several hours for the body was already cold.

Besides his parents, Mr. and Mrs.
Frank Bundschu, of Knoxville, the dead man is survived by the following brothers and sisters: Frank and Harry Bundschu, members of the Louisville Fire Department; Christopher Bundschu, of Chattanooga, Tenn.; Edward Bundschu, of Knoxville, Tenn.; Philip Bundschu and Mrs. D. B. Garvey, of Louisville, and another sister who is Sister M.
Adelle in a convent at Cincinnati.
The Louisville relatives all left Wednesday to attend the funeral, which took place in Knoxville.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.

Late News That Will Interest
Members Here and Elsewhere.

Tomorrow evening Dearborn Council will hold an open meeting at Lawrenceburg, Ind.

The council at Canton, Ohio, has arranged a social programme of nineteen events for the winter sesson.

The Rev. Father McGivney, of Middletown, Conn., a founder of the order, has been re-elected National Chaplain.

Baton Rouge Council will soon erect a building that will give its members all the benefits of a modern club house.

The council at Auburn, N. Y., has arranged for a sacred concert. Last week the first degree was conferred upon a class of ten.

The next interstate tour planned for the Knights of the United States will be a visit to that most interesting country that lies close to our own doors, the great Republic of Mexico.

The first meeting of the new Board of National Directors was held recently, when reports showed that the order has a surplus of $2,500,000, of which all but $100,000 is invested.

The State Council of Washington has provided for a fund of $2,300 for a Catholic lecture bureau. Each council in the State will have one lecture by some distinguished Catholic.

The District Deputy of Colorado Springs conferred the third degree for Denver Council last Friday night.
Ways and means are being devised for the establishment of a council at Salida, Col.

Wisconsin Knights have arranged for their State lecture course. Under the plan two lectures will be given under the auspices of each council in the State, of which there are twenty-eight.

The color guard, fourth degree, acted as an escort to the clergy at the solemn vespers services held under the auspices of New York Knights at the Church of St. Francis Xavier, Rev. Thomas P. Phelan,
State Chaplain, preached the sermon.
Des Moines Knights presented the Very Rev. M. Flavin with a purse of $350 in gold as a token of their esteem and pleasure at his promotion to right reverend monsignor. The council took a leading part in the ceremonies of the investiture, the fourth degree members, garbed in full regalia of their rank, acting as an escort of honor to Father Flavin.

THEATRICAL.

The coming of Wilton Lackaye to Macaulay's for the last half of next week will be one of the dramatic treats of the season. He will appear here in "The Bondsman," the greatest success of recent years.

The Mary Anderson high class vaudeville continues to grow in popular favor. Next week's bill includes some of the latest Klaw and Erlander triumphs and promises to be the best thus far presented.

The Hopkins Theater has cut out the continuous and will give a better vaudeville show than ever. For next week's bill there will be eleven high grade turns by stars of the stage.
Tuesday night election returns will be read from the stage.

"Buster Brown," the musical comedy which holds the high water mark at the Masonic Theater, is scheduled for next week at this playhouse. Under new management, the show has been given an almost entirely new scenic investiture, and will be new in many other respects.

Ethel Barrymore, unquestionably one of the most attractive actresses on the American stage, is announced as the star at Macaulay's Theater for the three nights beginning next Monday evening. She will appear in a new play called "Her Sister," expressly collaborated for her by Clyde Fitch and Cosmo Gordon Lennox.

COMES FOR BRIDE.

Dan Olive Patton, formerly of this city but now a resident of Globe, Ariz., where he is Secretary of the Arizona Copper Smelting Company, will arrive home on November 17, and on Thanksgiving morning will lead to the altar at St. Cecilia's church Miss Sallie Early. Before leaving Louisville Mr. Patton was a leader in Mackin Council, where a warm welcome awaits him upon his return. Miss Early is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Early, 2323 Griffiths avenue, and a popular girl of the West End. The marriage will be solemnized with a nuptial mass, Miss Pearl Will acting as bridesmaid and Frank Deuser as best man.

KNIGHTS AND LADIES.

Supreme President D. E. Kelley, of Memphis, spent last week in St.
Louis attending a number of joint meetings of branches of the order similar to that held in this city some time ago. The Catholic Knights and Ladies are flourishing in Missouri and that State may soon lead in membership. Every night during his stay President Kelley was greeted by large audiences, the Mound City people being elated over the results, as the membership was greatly increased, some branches making big gains.

COUNCIL DEPUTIES.

Grand President Clements, of the Young Men's Institute, has appointed the following Council Deputies for the Kentucky jurisdiction: W. H.
Oberman, Lambert Young; C. S. Hill,
DeFaine; John P. Numan, Major;
W. S. Lawo, Chickasaw; C. F. Meisen,
St. George; August Graf, Sarto;
Albert Rogge, Lafayette; Edwin H.
Trimber, Phil Sheridan; Frank P.
Kearney, Barry; Louis Keiffer, Mackin; J. A. Roby, Montgomery;

Piano Playing Instrument Was Successfully Accomplished by the Farrand-Cecilian Piano.

The greatest feat ever accomplished in the world of Piano Players was that of the Farrand-Cecilian last Wednesday at Macauley's Theatre in playing the accompaniment of the entire score of the Opera Faust. This, without question proves the superiority of the Farrand-Cecilian. No other instrument has ever been subjected to such a test. This great performance of the Farrand-Cecilian proves conclusively that this instrument does perform and has the mechanism, tone and all qualities claimed for it.

HURTS PROVE FATAL.

Felix Mallon Run Over By Interurban Car Saturday.

Felix Mallon, an aged and much respected resident of the eastern part of the city, was run over Saturday by an interurban car at Clay and Green streets, within half a block of his home, and sustained injuries from which he died Sunday afternoon at St. Anthony's Hospital. The unfortunate man was a retired traveling salesman and a brother-in-law of Mrs. John J. Barrett, 838 East Main street, from whose residence the funeral was held Tuesday morning. Mr. Mallon, it appears, was crossing the street and did not notice the rapidly approaching car until it was too late to jump from the track. He was hit with such force that he was hurled onto the sidewalk, almost upsetting a woman whom he struck. Deceased had a wide circle of friends and acquaintances who were painfully shocked by the news of his death. The funeral services were held at the Church of the Blessed Sacrament, of which deceased had been for many years a faithful member.

NEW ALBANY.

The Young Ladies' Sodality of Holy Trinity church, New Albany, are making extensive preparation for an interesting entertainment they will give at Trinity Hall, on Market street, near Seventh. The entertainment will be a comedy-drama entitled "The Old Maids' Convention" and the following young people will have part in the cast: Misses Katherine Cannon, Mayant Russell, Agatha Schaefer, Elizabeth and Mary Kelly, Louise Burke, Emily Lyons, Mary Glanville, Mary and Genevieve O'Donnell, Mabel Terstegge, Edith Terstegge, Katherine Normally, Margaret James, Lorena Lea and Katherine Smith; Messrs. Edward Tighe, Louis Russell and Herman Veruia; Masters John McBaron and Thomas Walsh.

LEAVES POLITICS BEHIND.

Sir Antony MacDonnell, Under Secretary to the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, who rose from the ranks of East Indian Civil Service to the highest stations within its gift in India, was a passenger on the Baltic, arriving at New York Saturday morning. It is Sir Antony's first visit to America. "I have come here for rest and recreation," said Sir Antony. "I have left politics behind. I don't intend to discuss them with reporters, and I did not come here to talk over political plans with anybody."

FATHER DIESTEL CALLED.

A pall of gloom was thrown over Evansville last Sunday night when the sad intelligence flashed over the city that the Rev. Father H. John Diestel had dropped dead, the result of a stroke of heart disease. Father Diestel was sixty-eight years old and for over half a century had been the beloved pastor of Holy Trinity church. From all parts of the diocese the clergy came to the funeral, which was perhaps the largest and most imposing ever witnessed in Evansville.

HIS FIRST RUN.

Albert T. Schranz, candidate for Councilman from the Sixth ward, whose card appears elsewhere, is making his first political race a lively one. Born and reared in the West End, he has a large personal following and has reason to expect a splendid vote. He has been successful in the real estate business and is well qualified for Councilman's honors.

ROSARY IN IRISH.

During the month of October the Rosary was recited in the Irish language at the Church of St. Vincent Ferrer, in New York. This church is in charge of the Dominican fathers, the beloved priests of the Irish people.

WITHOUT WARNING.

Coughing Causes Hemorrhage and Death of John Caveney.

Sudden and unexpected death came to John Caveney, formerly a well known section foreman in the employ of the Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern railroad, shortly before 3 o'clock Tuesday morning at his home at 1619 West Broadway. After investigation Coroner Duncan decided that death was due to a pulmonary hemorrhage, the rupture of a blood vessel caused by coughing. Until Monday night Caveney seemed to be in his usual health and in the best of spirits. About 2:30 o'clock his room-mate, William Curley, was awakened by his groaning, and going to his bedside found that he was unconscious and bleeding from his mouth and nose. He died before a doctor could be summoned. He was forty-five years old and is survived by his mother, Mrs. Ellen Caveney. The funeral was held Thursday morning from the Sacred Heart church, of which the deceased had for years been a faithful member. Rev. Patrick Walsh was the celebrant of the solemn mass of requiem, and in his sermon over the remains paid a feeling tribute to the dead, whose sudden summons to eternity should prove a warning to the living.

PRETTY HOME WEDDING.

A pretty home wedding in Jeffersonville Tuesday night was that of Miss May K. Coleraine, a pretty young woman of that city, and John W. Zimmerman, of Louisville. The nuptials were celebrated at the residence of Mrs. John Biedenbach, grandmother of the bride, and the attendants were William McDermott, of Louisville, and Miss Amy Cole, of Jeffersonville. The Rev. John O'Connell, of St. Augustine's church, officiated and performed the ceremony. After a reception had been tendered Mr. and Mrs. Zimmerman they left for St. Louis on a bridal trip. Upon their return they will make their home in this city on Baxter avenue.

WAS DANGEROUSLY ILL.

The many friends of Joseph E. Hill, formerly of this city but now residing in Braddock, Pa., will be glad to learn that he is now convalescing. Mr. Hill was stricken with typhoid fever and for four weeks was dangerously ill in the Braddock Hospital. His wife, who is the daughter of Hon. Jacob Hoertz, the well known contractor, and little daughter are with him in Braddock.

WORTHY CAUSE.

The Surprise Euchre Club, a popular West End social organization, will be entertained next Tuesday afternoon and evening at the residence of Mrs. A. C. Klein, 410 Twenty-sixth street, when many excellent prizes will be awarded. As the proceeds of this affair will be devoted to a worthy cause the members invite all their friends to meet with them and have a jolly time.

DANCE OLD STYLE.

St. Catherine's Council, Y. M. L., is providing delightful semi-monthly entertainments for members and their friends. The season opened with a euchre, then an oyster supper and last week an old-fashioned dance. These affairs are directed by the Barrys, Dawsons, Rapiers and Bowlings, and those that will follow promise still greater enjoyment for the people of New Haven.

VISITING EASTERN FRIENDS.

Martin Joyce, of West Main street, left last Saturday for the Jamestown Exposition, and from there went to New York City to spend a week visiting his numerous Irish friends there. This is a short trip for Martin, who generally crosses the ocean and spends a month in Ireland when he leaves Louisville.

FATHER BURNS' HEALTH.

Many Louisville people who remember Rev. John T. Burns in his boyhood days here, will be rejoiced to know that he is recuperating his health at Tombstone, Ariz. For a number of years Father Burns was stationed in San Francisco.
